Fortuna Proud – F.O.P.D. Think Pink Project

The Fortuna Police Department will be rolling out pink handcuffs during the month of October. The handcuffs along with office décor, and pink ribbon accessories are all part of the Fortuna Police Department's efforts to support the annual campaign which highlights the importance of breast cancer awareness, education and research. The breast cancer awareness campaign has become a global event which occurs every year in October. The Fortuna Police Department is looking forward to supporting a very worthy cause.

In addition to the October, "Think Pink" attitude, the police department will also be fund raising and accepting donations from the community. 100% of the funds or donations accepted will be given to a charity organization fighting against breast cancer. Donations can be made inside the front lobby of the Fortuna Police Department which is located at 621 11th Street, Fortuna, California.

The Fortuna Police Department is proud to serve the community and looks forward to raising awareness and contributing to vital cancer research.
